A four night holiday in Waterford with excursion(s) in South East Ireland. The cost of the holiday and any additional charges will be stated on your confirmation invoice. All sums include taxes where applicable.

Price Includes (all details are subject to change):

- four nights dinner, bed and breakfast
- admission into Dunbrody Famine Ship
- two excursions
- return coach travel and ferry fare (from Scotland)

EUROS REQUIRED

Day One: Depart from your selected joining point and travel to Treacy's Hotel, Spa and Leisure Centre, Waterford. Comfort stops will be made en-route.

Day Two: Begin the day in New Ross with a guided tour of the Dunbrody Famine Ship, a meticulously crafted replica of an 1840s emigrant vessel, offering a profound insight into the famine emigrant experience. Then, journey along the scenic Mount Leinster Heritage Trail, passing through Fenagh and Bagenalstown, before arriving in the medieval town of Kilkenny. Explore its charming narrow streets, historic abbey, and magnificent cathedral.

Day Three: Explore the lively city of Cork, home to the famous English Market, one of Europe's oldest and finest covered markets, featuring around 55 unique stalls. Visit the stunning St. Fin Barre's Cathedral and the historic St. Anne's Church. Wander through the city's numerous museums and galleries, or step back in time with a visit to the eerie 19th-century Cork Gaol.

Day Four: Enjoy a free day exploring Waterford. Wander through its historic streets and soak up the local atmosphere. Perhaps opt for a guided walking tour, browse the charming boutiques and unique shops, or pay a visit to the iconic House of Waterford Crystal.

Day Five: After breakfast you leave Waterford and travel home. Comfort stops will be made en-route.

It may be necessary under certain circumstances for these excursions to be operated on different days to those shown.
